• EN – Explanatory Notes
• COTED – Council for Trade and Economic Development
The Harmonized System

• WCO:
  – An independent intergovernmental body
  – Established in 1952 as the Customs Co-operation Council (CCC)
  – Mission:
    • Enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of Customs administrations
    • Enhance protection of society and national territory
    • Secure and facilitate international trade
The Harmonized System

- Objectives achieved through the efforts of a secretariat and various technical and advisory committees

- Provides:
  - A forum for dialogue and exchange of experiences between national Customs delegates
ii. Technical assistance, training opportunities and conventions

iii. Support members in building capacity within their administrations

• Partnerships with Customs administrations helps to:

i. Stimulate growth of legitimate international trade
The Harmonized System

ii. Combat fraudulent activities

iii. Create an honest, transparent and predictable Customs environment
The Harmonized System

• Historical Background of Tariff Nomenclature

➢ Authorities had 2 needs:
   i. to impose taxes and tolls (Rates of Duty) to goods moving within territories and between territories
   ii. to have knowledge of the levels of trade taking place of goods that attracted taxes or tolls and goods which did not attract taxes or tolls (statistics)
The Harmonized System

• A goods classification system was required to satisfy these needs

• The 1st system was an alphabetical list:
  ➢ Goods which attracted particular taxes or tolls
  ➢ Goods which were exempted from such taxes or tolls (this system was based on duty rates)
The Harmonized System

• Increased trade (national & international) meant:
  ➢ Increased number of different duty rates
  ➢ Increased number of exemptions
  ➢ Increased number of separate alphabetical lists ➢ Difficulties caused by differences in national Customs tariffs
The Harmonized System

▪ Differences:
  • internal arrangement of items
  • headings
  • names and definition of products
  • classification principles
The Harmonized System

• It became necessary to develop a standardized Customs nomenclature to ensure:
  – The systematic classification of all goods found in international trade
  – Internationally uniform classification of goods as the basis in tariffs of countries adopting the nomenclature
  – Internationally accepted Customs “language” understood by all users
The Harmonized System

– Simplicity and certainty of meaning when negotiating, applying and interpreting bilateral or multinational Customs agreements

– Internationally uniform collation of data to facilitate analysis and comparison of world trade statistics
The Harmonized System

• There were many attempts to prepare an international standardized nomenclature:
• 1931- First version of the Geneva Nomenclature which was revised in 1937
• 1950 – Amendments made to the Geneva Nomenclature and a draft was incorporated into the Brussels Convention on Nomenclature for Classification of Goods in Customs Tariffs
The Harmonized System

This version was called the Brussels (Tariff) Nomenclature (BTN)

1974 – BTN was renamed the Customs Co-operation Council Nomenclature (CCCN)

1983 – CCCN was replaced by the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System

1988 – Harmonized System entered into force
The Harmonized System

(in the CET)
The Harmonized System

- Goods are arranged in order of their degree of manufacture (stage of processing):

- Raw → Unworked → Semi-finished → Finished
  Materials  Products  Products  Products
The Harmonized System

- Live Animals
- Animal Hide & Skins
- Leather Footwear

Chap. 1 → Chap. 41 → Chap. 64
Sect. 1 → Sect. VIII → Sect. XII
The Harmonized System

- The same progression exists within the Chapters and headings: e.g. Chap. 79

Raw Materials → Semi-finished & finished Materials → Finished Articles

79.01, 79.02 → 79.03, 79.04 → 79.07

Unwrought zinc powders, pipe fittings → zinc bars
The Harmonized System

• Section arrangement based on material content:
  – Vegetable Products of Section II (2)
  – Textiles and Textile Articles of Section XI (11)
  – Base Metals and Articles of Base Metal of Section XV (15)
The Harmonized System

• Section arrangement also based on usage or function:
  – Vehicles, Aircraft, Vessels and Associated Transport Equipment of Section XVII (17)
  – Arms and Ammunition; Parts and Accessories Thereof of Section XIX (19)
The Harmonized System

Structure:

➢ The HS is a 6 digit coded system:

➢ Numbers 1 & 2 represent the Chapter

➢ Numbers 3 & 4 represent the Heading & position of the heading within the chapter

➢ Numbers 5 & 6 represent the Subheading
The Harmonized System

- E.g. 0808.10
  - Chapter
  - Heading & position within the chapter
  - Subheading
The Harmonized System

• Chapters:
  – Titles are for ease of reference only – Very general terms
  – May cover a range of goods
  – Not legally binding
The Harmonized System

• Headings:
  – A specific grouping of goods
  – General description of goods
  – Where a heading is not further subdivided, two zeros are added
  – legally binding
The Harmonized System

• Subheadings:
  – A breakdown (subdivision, disaggregation) of headings
  – Very specific descriptions of goods or groups of commodities except where the word “other” is used
  – Legally binding
• “Other”:
  – Recurring description found amongst the subheadings
  – Provides for the classification of goods not specifically identified by subheadings of a heading – A wide range of goods
  – Identified by the digit “9” or “8”
  – Allows for inserting additional subheadings without changing code numbers of existing subheadings
The Harmonized System

• Some chapters are subdivided into sub-chapters e.g. Chapters 29, 39, 63
  – Sub-chapters are numbered using Roman numerals
  – Each sub-chapter has a title
  – Goods are classified according to the terms of the sub-chapters much like chapters
The Harmonized System

• Punctuation Marks:
  – Comma
  – Semi-Colon
  – Colon
  – Full Stop/Period

• Key words:
  – and – or
The Harmonized System

• Comma:
  ➢ Used to separate items within a list or series
    • E.g. 42.02  Trunks, suit-cases, vanity-cases,........
  ➢ Used to set apart descriptors pertaining to the commodity
    • E.g. 41.15  Composition leather with a basis of leather or leather fibre, in slabs, sheets or strip, whether or not in rolls;
The Harmonized System

• In this example, the comma sets off descriptors
• The composition leather can be in slabs, sheets or strips and does not need to be in rolls
• However, if presented in rolls, would qualify under this heading.
The Harmonized System

• Semi-Colon:
  ➢ Used to denote a full stop
  ➢ Separates portions of headings into independent units
  ➢ Always read what comes before and after the semi-colon as separate items to ensure proper classification
The Harmonized System

• Activity

Look at the following headings and identify the groups of goods that would qualify to be classified in them:

70.18
38.10
34.01
The Harmonized System

- Colon:
  - Indicates a list to follow i.e. further subdivisions have been made
  - E.g. 10.01 Wheat and meslin.
    - Durum wheat:
      - 1001.11 -- Seed
      - 1001.19 -- Other
    - Other:
      - 1001.91 -- Seed
      - 1001.99 -- Other
The Harmonized System

Colon indicates a further subdivision at the two-dash subheading level

• Look at heading 82.01
  – The colon alerts the user to a list of hand tools

• Period:
  ➢ Indicates the end of the descriptive text accompanying the heading or subheading ➢ Only the articles therein can be classified under the terms of that heading
The Harmonized System

• E.g. heading
42.02 Articles of apparel and clothing accessories, of leather or of composition leather.

• Key Words:
  ➢ “and” – adds further descriptors and conditions
The Harmonized System

• E.g. heading:

64.03  Footwear with outer soles of rubber, plastics, leather or composition leather and uppers of leather.

“or” alternatives of materials classifiable within the terms of this heading: outer soles may be of rubber, plastic, leather or composition leather
The Harmonized System

“and” adds a condition such that footwear of heading 64.03 have outer soles of various materials listed and uppers composed of leather
The Harmonized System

• Principles of the “Dash” System:
  – Used where there is further subdivision of a subheading
  – Appears before the description of goods
  – One dash (-) is used at the 1st level of subdivision
    • The 5th digit is not zero
  – Two dashes (--) are used at the 2nd level of subdivision
    • The 6th digit is not zero
The Harmonized System

- Consider headings: 02.05 & 02.06

- 02.05

- 0205.00 Meat of horses, asses, mules or hinnies, fresh, chilled or frozen
  - No further subdivision

- The 5th and 6th digits are 0s
The Harmonized System

• 02.06 Edible offal of bovine animals, swine, sheep, goats, horses, asses, mules or hinnies, fresh, chilled or frozen.

  – Further subdivisions
  – A dot between the 2\textsuperscript{nd} and 3\textsuperscript{rd} digits
  – At the first subdivision, the 5\textsuperscript{th} digit is 1
  – No further subdivision
  – The 6\textsuperscript{th} digit is 0
  – One dash (\(-\)) appears before the description of goods
The Harmonized System

0206.10 - Of bovine animals fresh or chilled

(0206.20) – Of bovine animals, frozen:
  0206.21 -- Tongues
  0206.22 -- Livers
  0206.29 -- Other

0206.30 – Of swine, fresh or chilled

(0206.40) – Of swine frozen:
  0206.41 -- Livers
  0206.49 -- Other

0206.80 – Other, fresh or chilled

0206.90 – Other, frozen
• From the above:
  – The 6\textsuperscript{th} digit was not 0
  – Further subdivision
  – Use of two dashes (--) before the description
  – The tariff heading number for the one dash (-) subheading to be further subdivided is not usually written in the heading column
  – The subdivisions are in ascending numerical order
The Harmonized System

• HS at the Regional and National Levels
